

PETS' MEWS

The MewsPaper for Instagramming Pets, Plushies and their People

Welcome

Dear Friends,

Thank you for downloading the first ever issue of the Pets' Mews.

We've been scouring Instagram for the best mews stories this month and have collected a few of our favourites here.

Want to be featured?

If you have a great Mews Story and would like to be featured, or send us a report, please send Topsy Cat @travelswithmycat a message and we'll try and feature you in the next edition.

Tell us about:

- your travels
- new arrivals
- birthdays
- celebrations
- and any other interesting bits and pieces

Want to advertise?

Just let us know!

"OMG found St. Paul's cathedral I think??? Beginning my search for love here, hope there are some nice peeps further up the steps."

Will Gordon Find Love?

Everyone's favourite Hippo @gordonthehippo is on a mission to find l'amour in Paris, the Capital City of Romance.

Astro Hippo

Known for his varied skills, from training to follow in the paw-steps of Major Tim Peake and his mission on board the International Space Station, to his skill in nail art, Gordon is one talented Hippo. Yet, for him, finding true love is proving tough. Is it true that no one wants a Mr Nice Hippo? Here at Pets' Mews, we're not convinced. Gordon - you are a true catch (you might just need to work on your geographical knowledge).

Kylie: New flame?

Gordon has been keeping a low profile, but there are unconfirmed rumours that he was last seen having a candle lit dinner with Kylie at Maxims.

Let's hope that his bid for happiness is successful. We will keep you posted!

Celebrations

Eid Mubarak!

A very Happy Eid to all our friends celebrating at this time. Here's a photo of the Little Sister of dear @_salaon_

At Eid, it is customary to give sweets out to all loved ones. Enjoy your time, sweet friends!

Congratulations

A hearty well done to @kiki.and.friendz and all who helped them tick off all the items on their #camphooplahooraygiveaway scavenger hunt. We've been following their adventures, and it's lovely to see their success.

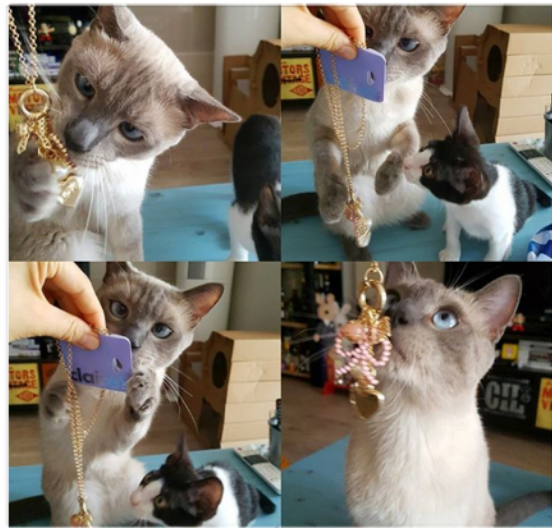

Editor in Chief: Tippy Cat Bose

New Arrivals

How do you do, Hodu?

We're pleased to welcome Hodu to @catbongbong_ family. He's two months old, very cute, and a little bit shy, but when he plays with Bongbong, he looks like Superman, flying around with his best buddy :)

Hello Little Birdies

Our report today comes from our ace reporter Snuggles Lee Steinmacher @snuggleslee

"Good morning friends! Wanted to send you all a baby bird update. They are doing great. Getting more feathers as the days go on. Mommy and Daddy robin come and feed them very often."
