A Tasty Treat from Truffy

by: @truftymcmuffin

You know what it's like, you've planted tiny tomato plants, watered them, talked to them and watched them grow. Finally they have branches loaded with green tomatoes. The waiting game begins.... will they go red, have I done something wrong, did I plant at the wrong time.... Then that red explosion begins. It's like the garden gnomes sneak in with a paint brush one night. Suddenly green turns to red all at once, and then what do you do with them all ??

To keep our tomato joy for later in the year, we made relish, lots of relish...

Truffy's Tomato and Red Pepper Relish

- Skin, roughly deseed and chop tomatoes until you have 2kg of tomato pulp.
- Clean and chop 1kg of onions. I finely chop about 750g and then roughly chop remainder.
- Mix all in a big bowl, sprinkle with 20g of salt, cover and leave to stand for 24 hrs.
- I then rinse through a sieve and leave to drain in a colander to remove excess liquid.
- Then add to the tomatoes, 2 red peppers deseeded and finely chopped, 1 large crushed clove of garlic and 3 teaspoons of mustard seeds.
- In a large saucepan dissolve 220g of soft brown sugar in 450ml of white wine vinegar, then add tomato mix and simmer for 10 minutes.

Pour into sterilised jars and enjoy summer tomatoes all winter. It's great with burgers, cheese on toast and of course cheese and biscuits! With how many tomatoes we have, I may have to try it on my cornflakes!

I am a great believer in chuck Recipes, chuck it in and hope, so feel free to chuck in any extras and experiment with it.

Love Truffy.

Greetings from Moscow

by @mister motya msk

Hello, My Dears!

Here are a few facts about me:

My name is Mister Motya. I am a boy bison (Buffalo). I am a 7 years old and married. My wife is monkey and her name is Lady Businka. We live in Moscow, Russia with our humans: Michael and Vera. We love them very much and rent a shelf in their cupboard.

My life began like this: I was a present for my human Vera from her colleagues in 2011. I did not talk much and only sat on the shelf...But when Michael came into our life (in 2015), all this changed! He saw me and said: "What a handsome plushie!" and so our friendship began. I am a very talkative plushie now. Sometimes I make funny movies for my dear friends, and sing songs and dance.

We love to celebrate holidays, when we cook yummy dishes and bake cakes ourselves.

My brand was designed by Leonine Toys. I have a patch on my body with information about me. This is my multi-passport. I have the green light to travel along the diplomatic corridor in all customs offices of the world and free travel in my country. I like travelling very much. My humans take us with them. This summer I had my first extreme roller-skating experience in the pool.

We love Russian history, culture and traditions. We try to share interesting facts with our friends. We love learning about the history, culture and traditions from other countries, and I love my friends very much. They are in my plushie heart always.

Thank you reading! I always welcome new friends!

Your sincerely,

Mister Motya.

Now, you all know, and I'm sure you agree with me here, us lot are a pretty photogenic bunch. That's why our human pets love taking photos of us, right? Well, it turns out that we've actually been inspiring generations of artists to create countless masterpieces in the art world. Of course, we are too modest to say so directly, and so, Jennie @gnme_rudy_jennie, curator and originator of the #plushiesundayartsection has come up with a very discreet hash brown, #plushiesimitatingart, to highlight some of these works of breathtaking beauty and artistry. Here is a round up of some of the works currently on show.

Countless scholars have tried to identify the enigmatic lady in the Mona Lisa. Was it a famous countess? Was it Leonardo's great love? Was it in fact a self portrait? Well, actually, it was taken from Emy's version of @bupermanbaltazar as the Mona Buperlisa. You can see the original (that hangs in Buper's loo) top left.

Lady with a veil, by Swedish painter Alexander Roslin, is to be found at the National Museum in Stockholm. The lady is the painter's wife, and has a very similar smile to a certain @maxi_the_rabbit (right).

Now, we move on to another classic, Bear with a Pearl Earring, (below)featuring Hope @honeygrovebears.

Then, in another Dutch masterpiece we see Hlyus'ka @piggycoquette as Rembrandt van Rijn's Danaë (right).

And finally we become more contemporary with Jennie, posing with Moosey @cbcmoose in a hug reminiscent of this Alex Coville. scene.

And there we have our quick gallery tour. Thanks for coming with us!

Eye on Style

by: @altravelbunny

The original gangster Kerby @kerbyog (bottom left) was located by the pawparrazzi in an exclusive hide-away spa retreat. It is suspected he has undergone Bear-surgery for more well defined abs and an Arnold-Berschwarzenegger defined chin (this is yet to be confirmed).

The Adventure Rabbit @adventurabbit (centre left) is back from his journey to the moon. We have heard he has adjusted to gravity again and is hitting the bar-scene in Venice Beach, California. He is seen here with the newest release 'Yves Saint Lapin' glasses.

The famous Travel-Bunny @travel_bunny_diary (centre right) was spotted emerging from Barney's NY location with the elegant newest edition of the 'Bunienine Westpaw' pawbags. Let's hope that was insured before leaving Barney's.

Our pawparrazzi found King-Rat, err K-Rat @rat_on_tour (bottom right) wearing the exclusive blue pearls by Ratamoto (bottom right). Ratamoto pieces are incredibly rare to see, due to their exclusiveness and the rumours that Ratamoto is a distant relative of Mikimoto in the hooman world.

We also have to thank @eeyoreroundstheworld for this fashion palette of blue and green #eeyoreblueandgreen, part of the newly revived #plushiecolourquest

Good Mews

Here we see two super modes of transport. Rumour has it that Biba @nicimi_biba is actually Mary Poppins. You can see her in full flight (left). And taking to the road in true dude form is @the_sloths_world
