Plushies Knit Bridges!

By: @teddybjorn15

Mummy started knitting for 3 years ago for fun, mostly hats. When she had been knitting for a while, she started to think what she would do with it all. Then she remembered that at her work in a secondhand store they send clothes that haven't been sold to poor countries in East Europe so she put all the hats, cardigans and socks she made in a box and gave it to them to send them away so poor cold children could stay warm.

Last autumn it was time to give away clothes again. This time she gave it to the secondhand store to sell. The money they get goes to help different organisations, one of them - and the one that gets the most help - is one in Ethiopia called "Family Mercy House". It's amazing, they help single women with children to learn a job so they can support themselves. Every year some people go there to see what they need help with. When they went last October, they had one of mummy's cardigans with them and gave it to a 9 year old boy and he got soooooo Happy!!!

Now mummy is thinking if it's possible to send clothes directly to them, if it doesn't cost too much. If it's not possible, she will send them away to East Europe again because she thinks that's the right thing to do. We thank you all so much for all your sweet comments on mummy's work, that makes her more motivated to continue. Mummy says: "It's not much, but it's at least something".

Love, Teddy and Linda xx

Good Mews Photos

Here's a little round up of what's been going on in the Plushie Community this month.

First of all, we'd like to introduce you to Guido, who was bought with the profits from all of you kind people who bought and downloaded the Cuddly Friends' Guide to New York. In the photo you can see @lobilat and Guido talking about the situation of Syrian refugee children in Lebanon. "It's very bad, especially for those kids living in refugee tents in the mountains. It's very cold due to the snow and rain. Guido will be joining the next fluffy mission to Lebanon which will take place in March. Then all the donated fluffy friends like GUIDO will brought to the Syrian kids living in the camps in Lebanon. #cuddlesaregoodforthesoul If you want to know more the fluffy mission: www.lobilat.com." A huge thank you to the lovely contributors of the Guide - @nyctheboyz, @jellycat fellows, @g_mum_rudy_jennie, @adventurabbit, @stiepanou I hippo, and @doyka supercow.

Next, we see @the sloths world (left) who went on a tour Barcelona, but as with so many of their exploits, things didn't go exactly as planned: "Well, when I told you, we need a motorcycle, I didn't mean vespa, Small Sloth..." Small Sloth: "With our budget, you can be glad for anything, including a small donkey...." @freddietheowl (bottom left) on the other paw / wing, seems to be having a much more satisfying time, relaxing in the sun. Penny the dog (bottom centre) has been enjoying walks with her bestie @gerililac - the huge grin says it all! And @hisses_and_headbutts's Nanny Oheya Bear (bottom right) is proud to announce that the Little Fellow is now 340 grams and starting to open his eyes - and check out their cute, matching beanie hats!

Plushie Service Announcement

**** STOP PRESS ****

Hope @honeygrovebears (pictured right) has launched, with the help of @tadbearhere (founder of the brilliant #plushiemoviescenes), a new Plushie Service Announcement (PSA) hash brown hashtag. It's a great idea to make sure all the plushie community know about upcoming events. Here's how you use it:

1. Create your invite/photo/post of the event
2. Choose (#) of the month it will take place
3. PLUS (#) of the actual event you are hosting.

PLEASE NO PHOTOS OF THE ACTUAL EVENT ON THESE psa's.

This should work like a central place to go and see what's going on so we can try not to miss anything or at least see what we CAN make it to.

For example, here's how Hope is posting about her event in June by using #camphooplahooray2019#psajuneevent2019
BOOM! Click on it and you'll see the event posted for June!

Here's hoping this works! RE-POST ! Help spread the word!!
