The Plushies' Guide to Spring in Prague

By: @wayfaring\_blissfully

Prague is one the most beautiful cities in all of Europe.

But it really shines in spring. After a long and cold winter, the city Springs to life. It is at it most beautiful, the streets are filled with happy people and Plushies. The trees are in full Bloom, the days are longer, and people have more free time.

But we believe that besides all the famous places in Prague, like Charles Bridge and the Prague Castle. Spring Time offers some unique opportunities to experience things that you cannot experience during other parts of the year. There are so many things that it will be hard to cover them all in this article. We encourage you to visit Prague for yourself. But with no further delay, here is our list of things you must do in Prague in spring.

1. Buy a Pomlazka (pictured left).

Only sold one or two weeks before Easter, the Pomlazka is made from the branches of young Willow trees. The branches are woven to make a long stick. The end of the stick is decorated with coloured strings. The Pomlazka is special because it is used for a unique tradition that happens on Easter Monday. The sticks are used to lightly tap Women. The boy Plushies taps the girl plushie with the Pomlazka to make her stronger and more beautiful. The girl plushie in return gives the boy plushie decorated eggs and some drinks.

2. Go to local gardens.

From late fall to early spring the gardens around Prague are closed. In the middle of spring they are opened. They are a real treat. Filled with amazing history they are well worth a visit. We recommend Wallenstein Garden. It is where the Czech national senate is located. It has a lovely pond, eight owls, and 4 peacocks. Here you can see William and George in Letna Park and in the Wallanstein Gardens.

3 Watch the sunrise or the sunset from Lenta Park.

Possibly the best view in all of Prague. Waking up early to see the sun rise is a breath taking experience. You can also see some of Prague’s famous landmarks. Like the Vltava River, and Charles bridge

4. Walk down any street in Prague.

With some of the best architecture in all of Europe. Also The trees are full bloom, the pubs have set up their outside seating. All these small details make any random walk a real pleasure.

5 Visit the Branik district in Prague.

Located on the west bank of the Vltava. It has some real hidden gems. There is park near the river it’s a great place to relax and do some exercise. The Branik brewery is located in this district. One the most famous breweries in all of the Czech Republic. We also recommend you visit the church of Cirkev. A small black wooden church. It’s one of the most unique churches in all of Prague (bottom right). It’s a lovely little place.

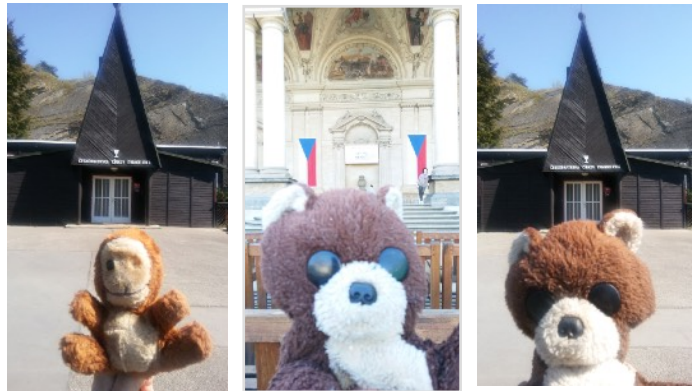

Prague is an amazing place no matter what time of year it is.

But we love spring. Let us know if you come to Prague . We would love to have a beer and hang out with new plushies.

Love,

George and William
