The MewsPaper for Instagramming Pets, Plushies and their People

Plushie of all countries, unite!

by: @fluffys\_fun\_adventures

Dear Pets' Mews Reader,

Long enough have the plushies suffered under human rule!

They use torture instruments on us that they call washing machines! Long enough have we had to follow their made-up rules, weren't allowed credit cards, and had to go on diets just because our humans were on a diet! No more, I say!

That is why I'm campaigning for office, together with my running mate @OriginalCow!

Vote for us in the US presidential election in 2020 -- as much and often as possible, and I will bring honour back to the colour orange! #fluffycow2020

Turn to page 2 to read my manifesto.

Hello Everyone,

Happy Midsummer /
Midwinter.

We've got a cracking issue for you this month. Our very own Plushie Presidential candidate is after your brains, I mean votes, (please note, the views expressed in his article are not necessarily that of the editor or publication and all disclaimer stuff like that), and we have a round up of the wonderful CampHooplaHooray 2019!

Happy reading,

Love,

Tipsy xxx

I will solve the problems of this planet in 10 simple steps:

1. End all wars by removing all borders. If there are no countries, they can't fight each other. I mean duh! It's that simple, how did humans not think of that? And everybody who still wants to fight -- I'll eat their brains.
2. No more destroying of this planet! It's my property, and I won't allow humans to break it!
3. I will end unemployment by giving every plushie their own human butler.
4. Create important ministries like the Ministry of Cookie Research, the Ministry of Brain Agriculture, and the Ministry of Science and Witchcraft.
5. Create a specialised plushie postal service that delivers same-day and never loses any mail.
6. Make education free for everybody, and mandatory for the lifetime of all Fox News viewers.
7. Use magic to turn all guns into candy sticks. If humans still want to hurt others with that, I'll eat their brains.
8. Legalise all cookies. The cookie monster had a medical problem, he's not a criminal! Well, except when he stole all those cookies and that car... I digress. So flood the market with cheap and safe cookies that are sold in a pharmacy with clean cutlery! Treat everybody who wants to get off the cookie - for free.
9. Speaking of free healthcare: I want that. I need my human subjects to be in good shape so they can serve me. In regard to plushie healthcare: Chocolate and booze will be declared a medicine and provided for free in vending machines on every street corner.
10. Do I even have to mention it? It's none of my business whom you marry: Gay, straight, inter-species, couples, throuples, objects, historical landmarks... Whatever makes you and your significant other(s) happy!

#CampHooplaHooray2019 Round Up

#plushiesbuildbridges and have a lot of fun doing so! We have a wonderful update from Hope @honeygrovebears: Between selling camp kits and GoFundMe we raised $610. Funds went to Texas Lions Camp to help a chronically ill, handicapped or special needs child attend camp. I had 14 counsellors who helped oversee the 8 different hashbrowns at camp. It was the 4th year of camp.

I will have postcards for sale (once they arrive in my post box) and will be selling them on my Etsy shop.

There were 830 posts for this fabulous event, here are just a teeny tiny few that we picked out. Thank you to @ior_polarbear (top left), @dollythedinosaur, (top right), @minkeysadventures (bottom left - check out their post for the video!), and @travel_bunny_diary (bottom right) for their lovely camp photos.

Don't forget, you can feature your #plushiesbuildbridges stories with us, just get in touch. Or to feature your photo, use the hasbrown #plushie-pawmission.
